Bertrand Baterina (Treasurer & Corporate Secretary of PMP).

MANILA, PHILIPPINES, May 2016 - Pamilya Muna Pilipinas, Inc. (PMP), the Philippine arm of Family First Asia, celebrated its grand launch on May 24 with over 150 Filipino leaders and partners in attendance, including officers of the Armed Forces of the Philippines, the Philippine Air Force and the Philippine National Police.

Present also during the event were Bernard Lee, Chairman of Family First Taiwan, Tan Tek Seng of Family First Malaysia and James Lee of Family First Singapore.

Bishop Noel Pantoja, Chairman of PMP and President of the Philippines Council of Evangelical Churches, offered his hopes that PMP will be able to serve millions of families from all over the Philippines regardless of socio-economic status, race, religion and age.

"There is a crisis of the family here in the Philippines as there is in all Asian countries. Millions of moms and dads in our communities are looking for the tools, the encouragement and the answers they need to build strong and loving families. Our goal is to serve every family that needs help, both for their benefit and to benefit our nation as a whole," Pantoja said via video.

Glenn Yu, President of PMP and CEO of SEAOL Philippines, Inc., the leading and largest independent oil company in the Philippines, expressed his appreciation for the 150 leaders and partners who turned up for the event. He also formally introduced the mission and vision statement of the movement and that is to help 5 million Filipino families in the next 20 years.

In his keynote speech, Honorable Gregory Slayton, Chairman of Family First Asia, also expressed his gratitude at the overwhelming support and response by the different partners represented.

"So many great partners from all over the Philippines - which is a testimony to the strength of our Family First Philippines Team... We salute the great leadership team of Pamilya Muna Pilipinas and their tremendous group of partners. I do believe that together they are going to help many Filipino families to grow stronger, more unified and happier over time. That's what we do at Family First International and Family First Asia - and we are so proud of our great partners at Pamilya Muna Pilipinas."

Honorable Gregory Slayton shares his inspiration behind his pursuit to equip fathers and to help families across Asia.

Officers from the Philippine National Police were present during the event to show support of the PMP launch.

Among the highlights of the launch was the release of the second edition of Mr Gregory Slayton's book, "Be a Better Dad Today"

Representatives of Family First Asia; Family First Singapore, Family First Malaysia, Family First Taiwan and Pamilya Muna Pilipinas Board of Trustees and their spouses.
