

MAXIMUM PARENTING Conference Jakarta, Indonesia

Jakarta, Indonesia - On August 13, 2016, Family First Indonesia hosted a huge Maximum Parenting Conference for over 2,000 parents in Jakarta, Indonesia. The conference drew moms and dads from all over Jakarta, the capital of Indonesia, the largest Muslim country in the world with a total population of over 250,000,000. Conference attendees heard a number of world class speakers on issues of direct relevance to all parents. There were breakout sessions to help attendees move forward in specific areas of parenting. Each attendee also received take home packets to help them put what they learned to work in their own families.

Handi Irawan, Chairman of Family First Indonesia, was a prime mover in bringing this huge event together. "This was a true team effort," offered Irawan. "It was a great day for all of us at Family First Indonesia and for all of our wonderful partners. We want to specifically thank these partners at Sekolah Athalia (Athalia Christian School), Yayasan Mendidik Bagi Negeri (YMBN), Full Gospel Businessmen's Fellowship International-Indonesia (FGBMFI), and Christ Cathedral. We also want to thank the entire Family First Indonesia team. This was a great event for us and we were honored to serve over 2,000 parents. Best of all, the feedback we've received has been extremely positive. We exist to serve all families in Indonesia and we hope to host similar conferences again here in Jakarta and in other major Indonesian cities."

Teddy Hartono, coordinator of the Education Division of Family First Indonesia, also was instrumental in the success of the Maximum Parenting Conference. "We believe this was one of the largest parenting conferences ever hosted in Indonesia and we are getting tremendous positive feedback from the attendees and from our partners. We wanted to serve each family that attended, helping every mom and every dad that joined us to grow in their roles as parents,"

Hartono stated. "We are honored to have been the organizers for this event, but we do want to thank each of our fabulous partners that helped make this all possible."

Gregory Slayton, Chairman of Family First Asia, attended the conference along with a number of other Family First Asia leaders: "What a great event. We salute our friends and partners at Family First Indonesia. What a tremendous effort. The entire event was extremely well organized and run with great excellence. The Family First Indonesia Team built a great group of partners that made this huge event possible for over 2,000 moms and dads. It was a tremendous day for one and all. And, we are grateful to all who helped our friends at Family First Indonesia make this conference possible."
